“When I look at the world I get distressed.
When I look at myself I get depressed. But when I look at Jesus, I find rest.”

Corrie Ten Boom

Our Father and our God, we remember and obey your command to pray for the peace of Jerusalem.

We pray for its people – Jews and Arabs- for its narrow streets bustling with commerce, its streetmarkets and shopping malls, its doctors, lawyers and hairdressers, its bus-drivers and taxis, builders, plumbers and carpenters. For its churches and synagogues, and reconciliation between Arabs, Christians and Jews. We remember that it is the city in which you declared, even when your covenant people were in exile in Egypt, that your name would be there. Keep us faithful so that Your Name be honoured among all nations, tribes and tongues, in Jerusalem and around the world.

Advance Notice

HOPE celebration Wednesday 12th Nov 7.30pm, Central Methodist Church, Pevensey Road.

Andy Hawthorne, one of the founders of Hope will be joining us for a celebration as we look back on the impact this has made in and around Eastbourne. We will also have the opportunity to hear Andy speak about what has been going on for Hope all around the country. Come and join us if you want to hear more about the difference bringing Hope to Eastbourne has made to lives of so many people.

Climate Changed? - an event being jointly organised by Christian Aid and CAFOD here in Eastbourne. The CAFOD South Director Roger Morton will describe the impact that climate change is having upon Kenya (he has just returned from a visit to CAFOD projects there) and the discussion will focus on how we both as individuals and churches can lighten our carbon footprint.

Street Pastors

An interested group of representatives from local churches, including Councillor Caroline Heaps, is looking to set up a team of Street Pastors in Eastbourne in partnership with Sussex Police-and they want your help. Volunteers are needed to form a rota of people prepared to patrol Eastbourne town centre between 10pm and 4am on Friday and Saturday nights.

The next meeting will be held at 7.45pm on 30 September for anyone who would like to get involved. Contact Sandy Medway for more information on 07710 309893 or email sandy@bn212sb.freeserve.co.uk. or visit www.streetpastors.co.uk for further information on what it means to be a Street Pastor. Full training will be given!
