Sunday 19th October All Age Breakfast with Chris Nichols

Worship, Praise and What we sing, an afternoon with Christopher Idle, author of nearly 400 published hymns. All Saints Church Saturday 6th September 3.30-5pm followed by tea. Admission free, retiring collection.

When a maid in a large house retired for the night she would always pick up the newspaper that the master had finished reading. The master was intrigued by this and wanted to know what she looked at and what interested her in the paper. One day the master asked her. She said 'I read the births, marriages and deaths.' He asked her why. She said, 'So that I can pray for all the children that are born into this world who need God to protect them. I pray that they will grow up knowing God. I pray for all who are mourning their lost ones and I pray that they will find comfort in the shepherd, and I pray for all those who are being married that they will know something of the sanctity of holy marriage.'

July Monies:

Collections: £2466
other income £14
Expenses: £2542

These sentences actually appeared in church bulletins or were announced in church services:

- The fasting and prayer conference includes meals.
- The sermon this morning "Jesus walks on the water." The sermon tonight "Searching for Jesus."
- Ladies, don't forget the rummage sale. It's a chance to get rid of those things not worth keeping around the house. Bring your husbands.
- Weight Watchers will meet at 7pm. Use large double door at side entrance.
- Don't let worry kill you off – let the church help.
- Miss Nelson sang "I will not pass this way again," giving obvious pleasure to the congregation.
